I have enjoyed the co-operation of many in helping in the preparation of this history of our family. Some may be interested to know that in all my research, I have not found a one that has been convicted of a felony. All appear to be good, honest people. Many living in rural areas. Likewise, none have risen to fame. I would like to suggest to each person that receives a copy of this family history that a record be kept of thenr descendants for future generations. There will be approximately 250 copies of this and one placed in the libraries of Findlay, Upper Sandusky and Kenton, Ohio.

MYERS BROWN EATHERTON PRATT KOH(E)R FAMILIES OF HANCOCK, HARDIN, WYANDOTTE, MADISON and FAIRFIELD COUNTIES OF OHIO, ALLEGHENNY COUNTY, PA. and VIRGINIA

THOMAS MYERS, BORN IN PA. MARRIED MISS..... KOH(E)R BORN IN PA.

Both died in Madison County, Ohio. Buried near West Jefferson. Both born in Pennsylvania about 1775-80. Married in Allegheny County, Pa. They went to Fairfield County, Ohio after some children were born about 1815 - 18. George Myers, son of Andrew J. Myers and Della Myers of Rubens family have helped me considerably in assembling these families.

Jacob Myers, Born in Pa. in 1735, Died 1818 in Madison county is buried in the Southern part of the County. Evidently is the father of Thomas as this is a very early date and sparsely settled, this also coincides because there is no other Myers listed in records, and it looks as thoungh he came with Thomas to Ohio. Another item handed down in our family is that the Myers were in trouble in the whiskey rebellion in Western Pa in 1794. This Jacob is listed in the census of 1790 of Pennsylvania. 2 males oner 16, One male under 16, four females nn Pitt Town, Allegheny County.

This all beoing true, only seven Myers came to this country before 1735 by Rupp's 30,000 immigrants to Pennsylvania. Jacob, Elias, Henrick, Jacob and Henrick 1727. Frederick and Eberhart 1730.

Johan Thomas Meyer came September 21, 1731. Ship Britania of London, Michael Franklyn, Master, sailed from Rotterdam to Cowes, England to the United States. This is the one I am inclined to believe is Jacob's father, because the name Thomas is not a common name in our family now, and that is where his grondsin got his name - Thomas.

1732 - Adam, Hansjacob, Simon and Hans. Most all of these immigrants came from the Palitanate of the upper Rhine in Germany because of religious persecutions.

I don't have much on the Koher family other than a Johannes Kohr came August 30, 1737. Ship Samuel, Hugh Percy, Master

The Meyers name was changed later, fearing people would think it Jewish.

John K. and Adam, sons of Thomas were born in Allegheny County, Pa. Also went to Ohio when they were small boys. Another son, R(e)uben believed born in Ohio. These boys all married in Madison County, Ohio then went to Hardin and Hancock County, Ohio.

EATHERTON—

Ebenezer Eatherton (1). Born in West Virginia about 1775-80. Wife's name unknown. Came by the way of Kentucky up through Ohio with two boys, Ebenezer, Jr. and George, to Pickaway County, Ohio, about 1820-2 then to Hancock County, Ohio, then went to Cedar County, Iowa.

Ebenezer, PJr. remained there but some of his children later came back to Ohio. But George and his father, Ebenezer, Sr. came back to Ohio and settled east of Mt. Blanchard about three miles on a farm.

George married Mary Brown then and had five girls and three boys. Both are buried in cemetery at Six Points and his father is buried in a field by the cemetery. I have been informed lately that this cemetery has been used for a hog pen which I regret telling and hope some one has a record from off the tombstone markers.

I have searched all kinds of records and find only one other family in United States near this name, A. Thomas Etherton who also went by way from West Virginia to Kentucky, Tennessee and settled in Etherton, Illinois, near Carbondale in Jackson County about 1818. There is still a lot of descendants left around there yet, I have been informed by one Charles who is Postmaster there.

I have had records searched in Pennsylvania and Virginia and find only one clue that has been given me, that is because the record takers were indifferent to the spelling and pronunciation because they were Dutch and the name should be Atherton and is English.

This all being true and according to records only one Otherton is listed in Pennsylvania and the names of his descendants are in line with the names later in our family.

Henry Atherton came from England after 1715 to Pennsylvania. Two sons, Thomas, died 1782; and Henry, Jr.

Thomas had Richard; he married 1775 and Henry last, had Thomas and Francis.

Henry, Jr. had Caleb, born 1736. Henry and William.

Henry had George. Below are listed other records I have found in Pennsylvania and Virginia. Listed in library in Harrisburg, Pa. John Eatherton, Bucks County, 1784, nine persons; Henry, six persons; Richard, four persons. York County, 1783.

Thomas Atherton, died 1782, son of Henry and Jeanette (Thelwall) Atherton, York County. He married Abigail Dau of Joshua and Elizabeth (Rogers) Marsh.

Henry, disowned, went to western Pennsylvania, living in the Glades of Stoney Creek. Married Ann Dau of Francis Hobson. Two sons and 2 daughters. Richard to Westmoreland. Married Phebe Hobson.

Elizabeth married Alexander Ellicott, York County, son of Isaac, disowned. 1783 census of Virginia lists John Atherton, five in family: Ann with six; Elizabeth, four, Gloucester County. Henry Jr. and Sr. Netherton and John Shenandoah County, 1782 with 2-12 and 10.

Three William Athertons listed in Revolution in Pennsylvania. 1790 census of Pennsylvania lists in Luzerne County, Ethel, Cornelius, James, Jr. and Sr., John and Moses with 8-7 3 6-3 2. Chester County, Henry with two.

1790 census of North Carolina. Elizabeth, four in family and 28 slaves.

In Iowa, in Civil War, Stephen Etherton, age 36, born in Kentucky; Moses Etherton, age 26, born in Kentucky; William Etherton, age 28, born in Ky.

I am giving all this data hoping and feeling sure we are connected with them somewhere except the ones in Luzerne County, Pa.

Each family will be completed in unison and not by generations from here on.

GEORGE EATHERTON AND MARY BROWN. Descendants, five girls and three boys. Sister to Abraham Brown.

1—Jamima Eatherton. Born..... Died..... Married Henry Keenan and went to near Portland, Oregon, about 1870. Only have the name of one child, Francis Keenan; in the Civil War. There is other children but George Myers don't recall names as they went west.
